Lt. Governor Polito Continues "Building Stronger Communities" Tour in Brockton, Braintree, and Quincy

Lt. Governor Set to Discuss New Executive Order to Elevate Municipalities, Chapter 90 Funds

BOSTON – On Thursday, Lt. Governor Karyn Polito will continue her statewide tour to meet with local mayors in Brockton, Braintree, and Quincy to discuss the Baker Administration's first Executive Order to create the Community Compact Cabinet.

The Executive Order is set to elevate municipalities and strengthen relationships between all communities and the Governor's Office, creating improved partnerships and mutual standards for every city and town. Click here to read more on the Executive Order.

Polito will also discuss the recent release of $100 million in Chapter 90 funding for local road and bridge repairs. As promised, the Baker Administration unleashed these funds as their first act in office on January 8th.
